

Trainer & Consultant Profile

Antje Lehmann-Benz is a trainer and consultant for project management and agile methods.

She is PMP and PMI-ACP-certified and a Scrum expert – with a mission to “bridge the gaps”:

- between theoretical knowledge and practical application
- between classical and agile approaches

In her interactive sessions, she teaches and coaches methods and tools to make real projects more successful. Antje also has profound experience in optimizing the application of Atlassian Jira and Confluence for Kanban and Scrum teams to help meet team-specific challenges she knows from her own experience.

Curriculum Vitae

- Since 2016: Trainer and coach for project management and agile working.
- 2009-2016: IT project management, Scrum and consulting with focus on Jira implementations for project teams.
- 2006-2009: Project implementation for online editorial team, media company, Munich, Germany
- 2002-2006: Switch to an IT career during studies, initially as project assistant
- High school diploma in 2000, university degree (linguistics) in 2006
- Born 1979 near Stuttgart, Germany

References and Project Examples

Consulting

- 2020-today: Scrum Master and DevOps Transition Coach in a large-scale agile software development project, Automotive, Munich area
- 2018: Jira rollout, consulting and training, on-site workshops, IT SME, Slovenia
- 2013-2016: Product Owner in semiconductor and IoT industry (focus on Atlassian Jira rollout and implementation), Munich area

Training

- 2017-today: Regular public project management, Scrum certification seminars in cooperation with training providers, Munich, Hamburg, Frankfurt
- 2017-today: Technical University Munich, visiting lecturer teaching Scrum to computer science postgraduates, Munich area
- 2017-2021: Regular In-House Scrum trainings (Scrum Master and Product Owner) for Automotive Agile Curriculum, Stuttgart area
- 2017: US military base in Germany – Scrum and Jira for operational teams, greater Munich area
- 2009-2019: Training development expert and trainer, Munich area

For over a decade, Antje has volunteered for the Project Management Institute. She regularly publishes articles in project management blogs and is a guest speaker at events and podcasts.

Articles

- <https://www.theprojectgroup.com/blog/?s=antje+lehmann-benz>
- <https://pmworldlibrary.net/authors/antje-lehmann-benz/>